My Personal Pledge to My Clients

My Personal Pledge is more than just words, it is my personal commitment to you to fully utilize all of my talents and abilities so that I can exceed your expectations of a professional real estate agent. My pledge is my word, and my promise to you!

“My pledge is my promise and commitment to you!”

I Will:

- ... thoroughly explain the home buying/selling process so that you are comfortable with the process
- ... LISTEN! And thoroughly and timely respond to your questions and concerns.

- ... keep you thoroughly informed of the status of your home purchase/sale.
 - ... offer constructive advise based on my training and experience.
 - ... respect and value your time, and will contact you when best for you.
 - ... be available to answer any question no matter what time — day or night.
 - ... commit to improving my job skills by utilizing the best current training and educational materials.
 - ... do everything within my abilities and talents to make your home buying/selling experience as positive as possible.
 - Sellers: ... utilize all appropriate and available means to sell your home for maximum price in the minimal amount of time.
 - Buyers: ... listen to your wants and needs, and will only show you homes that meet your stated desires.
 - ... ask you for your constructive input on my performance. *
- As part of my Personal Pledge, it is critical that I receive input on my performance. Therefore, I will ask for your candid and constructive input on how I performed relative to my pledge points. This is my primary means to ensure that I can meet my pledge points and continuously improve.
